In an era marked by complex global challenges—ranging from social exclusion and economic disparities to political marginalisation—the need for justice-driven, inclusive solutions has never been more urgent. Empower Justice – 2025 is a pioneering international conference that aims to bring together academicians, legal experts, human rights advocates, researchers, and civil society leaders to foster a multidimensional understanding of marginalisation and empowerment.

Hosted at the esteemed National University of Advanced Legal Studies (NUALS), Kochi, and held in collaboration with the Global Research Conference Forum (GRCF), this two-day academic conclave will serve as a vibrant platform for interdisciplinary discourse and policy innovation.

This conference reflects the shared commitment of NUALS and GRCF to promote justice, inclusivity, and transformative change through collaborative research and global dialogue.

Conference Highlights:

- Keynote addresses by international experts in law, humanities, and human rights
- Parallel technical sessions and interdisciplinary paper presentations
- Thematic panels on policy, social movements, and lived experiences
- Cultural exhibitions, short film screenings, and advocacy campaigns
- Networking opportunities with scholars, NGOs, and global partners

Key Themes:

- Legal Empowerment and Access to Justice
- Human Rights Education and Grassroots Advocacy
- Gender Justice, Disability Rights, and Intersectionality
- Indigenous Voices and Environmental Justice
- Media, Literature, and Cultural Resistance
- Migration, Statelessness, and Refugee Narratives
- Inclusive Governance and Participatory Development
- Mental Health, Youth, and Community Well-being
